

John Wollaston Anglican Community School

A school of The Anglican Schools Commission (Inc.)

PRINCIPAL

The Anglican Schools Commission seeks to appoint an outstanding educator to lead John Wollaston Anglican Community School from 2025.

Nestled in the foothills of the Darling Range, only 26km from the Perth CBD, the thriving Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12 co-educational day school has approximately 1200 students.

The current Principal, Ms Anne Ford, will retire in July 2024 after 23 years of outstanding service.

Applications are welcome from suitably qualified and experienced school leaders.

It is anticipated that the successful candidate will commence on 1 January 2025 or another date by negotiation.

Further information can be found in the Appointment of Principal Booklet.

General School information is available on the website <https://www.jwacs.wa.edu.au/>

Applications may be emailed to principalappointment@ascschools.edu.au and should be addressed to:

Mr Kiel Anthony
Director of Human Resources
Anglican Schools Commission

Applications close Monday 18 March, 4.00pm (AWST).
